A festive celebration of freedom!

As part of the 79th anniversary of D-Day and the Battle of Normandy

D-DAY FESTIVAL NORMANDY 2023

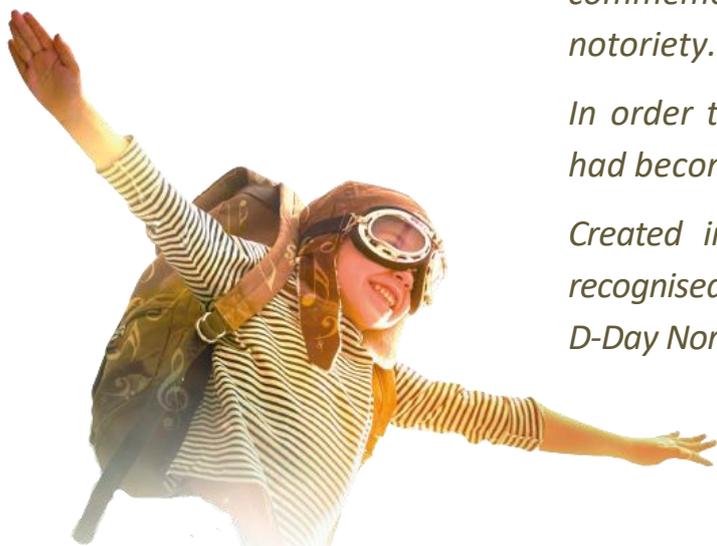

17th edition from 27 May to 18 June 2023

“The Normandy Landings of 6 June 1944, one of the most decisive pages of contemporary history, have triggered an intense flow of visitors, to the point of becoming a vital sector for tourist economy in Normandy.

For the past 78 years, film productions and international commemorations have largely contributed to its notoriety.

In order to guarantee the sustainability of the sector, it had become vital to invent new forms of communication.

Created in 2007, the D-Day Festival Normandy is now recognised as the concept of communication for the regional D-Day Normandy sector.”

PRESS RELEASE

THE D-DAY FESTIVAL NORMANDY RETURNS IN 2023

A festive celebration of freedom from 27 May to 18 June 2023!

Parachuting, parades of historic vehicles, popular balls, concerts, fireworks, reconstitutions or even military exchanges are back for this 17th edition! An edition placed under the sign of the return to normality with more than a hundred popular and festive events revealed in the programme, back to paper format and available in the tourist offices of the D-Day and Battle of Normandy Area.

Led by a group of Norman tourist offices, the D-Day Festival Normandy welcomes a new member for this 17th edition: the Cotentin tourist office. The concept remains the same: each tourist office collects events in its area in order to create a common programme that is promoted by all and widely communicated at regional level. One year before the 80th anniversary of the D-Day Landings, the tourist offices and organisers are ready for a festive celebration of freedom !

The official tourism event of the regional destination "D-Day Normandy"

The D-Day Festival Normandy extends its action over the entire D-Day and Battle of Normandy Coastal Area. The D-Day Festival Normandy benefits from the constant support of the Normandy Region and the Normandy Regional Tourism Committee, which have made it the official event concept of the regional destination D-Day Normandy. A regional recognition which reinforces the eight associated tourist offices to develop their festive, cultural, tourist and popular offers.

Programme: between new features and historical elements, the festival is back!

For this 17th edition of the festival, the public will find a paper programme available in the tourist offices as well as a collector's postcard! New and experienced visitors alike will benefit from easy and complete information. The dedicated page hosted on the Normandie Tourisme website adds to the information sources of visitors while presenting them with the latest news of the festival.

Stay tuned!
